Today the postman brought me something new which has been my buy of the year. It is a 14k white gold gents Gruen 21 jewel watch with 80 diamonds surrounding the Bezel. The movement is a 3351, the case is made by Jonell, style number is 855. All valid markings on the case back there is no doubt that this is not a Frankenwatch. It can be dated towards about 1954 by the serial number which would be the 80th anniversary year of Gruen. So I think that the 80 diamonds are not a coincidence. Has anyone ever seen this model and can ID it?
