Jack--you're right, and I was mistaken about my 700430 sn one in the 1929 case. It, too, had no adjustment markings at all. Had to correct my post above.

So now it fits with the case markings: "unadjusted" not a required mark under 1922 tariff (required 1930+), movement was adjusted in USA.

Alex--were your early ones also unmarked? Or were they stamped unadjusted?
