Matt,

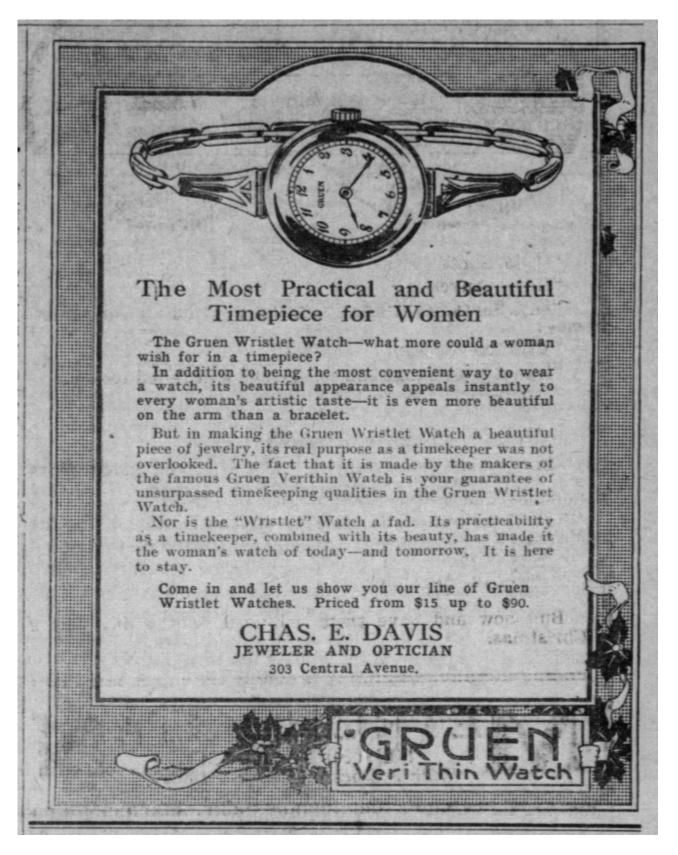

I am with you and I have no doubt that the watch has to be classified as a ladies watch. The watch with attached band will once have had looked like this:

And here the proof that some of the early ladies watches had this odd orientation and sub seconds:

demine an improvement and a second a second and a second

A gift that will be doubly pleasing

If some wife, sweetheart or sister is going to receive a watch from you this Christmas, why not make it a Gruen wristlet watch?
