

---

Subject: Re: Early Wristlet

Posted by Jenneke on Sun, 01 Jan 2023 16:37:54 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Barney Green wrote on Sun , 01 January 2023 17:03 Probably also worth mentioning that to my knowledge the first man's Gruen wrist watches were advertised in April 1915, which would indicate that there should not be any "United" trench watches for gents.

Nice reasoning.

Quote: Jenneke, it is not possible it is a converted pocket watch.

I was considering the conversion because of the hinge and position of the 12, not bc of the movement. But no doubt you can judge it better because you have this nice early wrist watch. :) And the plain back is making is a tell tail sign which I didnt notice before.

---