Bazzab,

Paul's site certainly states that both men's and lady's watch movements were made at the Norwood facility. However, if it is the cal 290, I've yet to see one that isn't marked with anything other than Switzerland. Maybe I'm missing them. In fact, I'm hard pressed to recall ever seeing a woman's movement marked "US" or "Cincinnati" as the US made 335s are stamped.

Cary has the same impression too -
