Trying to find out if someone has a crystal to sell for a Gruen Veri-Thin 21 jewel caliber 335, style 703 wristwatch, made in 1950, I believe. I don't have it in my possession yet, but should have it soon for dimensions. Attached is a photo of the face. Thanks! Raybow

Best of luck! I just sold you that watch - and I never found a crystal myself, or I would have put it on. Of course, that's not to say that I looked everywhere (or that there's not one out there), and I never asked here.

Hi

I have that crystal in glass, in two styles. 1. standard thickness 2. double facetted, high profile.
