Hi,
I am looking for a vintage (or vintage style) leather (possibly pigskin) band 18mm with squared off stitching at lug ends, this one is not for a Gruen but for a vintage Omega Marine (from late 30s). Online there are the IW available in this size but not all agree about their quality.
If you have one to sell please contact me by PM
Thanks
Raul

Wish I did, a common issue for me.

Wondering, would others be interested in getting some custom ones made? There are a few places in Cincinnati and Louisville that could do it. Just wondering if there are sizes and styles others might want to replicate.

Yes. It's amazing to me that the unpadded strap with stitching squared off at the end was the norm for for almost 40 years, and now nobody makes them, especially narrower vintage sizes, like 14mm. And I'm pretty sure that IW has gone under. I used to buy directly from them, but haven't been able to get an order in for about five years. I think what's on eBay is leftover stock, which is probably why more common sizes no longer seem to be available.

Maybe this is an option?

Buy one of these: <https://holbensfinewatchbands.com/products/fluco-pigskin-leather-tan?variant=16232651096175>
And add some stitching at the lug ends?

I have found some very nice bands from this European supplier:
<https://www.minott-center.com/>

I've ordered several of this style:

But they seem not flat and without squared stitching at lug ends...
