Hi Folks,

I'm in need of a center wheel for a 415SS movement. I started working on the current one I'm wearing, and tore it down to find it has a tooth missing from the center wheel. Needless to say, (but I will anyway) this watch runs really fast!!! Any helpers out there?

Thanks Darhin for the previous information on cases.....good stuff!

Well, Offrei I'm sure, is an extremely reputable and honest business, but what they are asking for a 415SS center wheel is more than watch this old beater is worth. I'll have to try another avenue of approach, and maybe someone has this center/centre wheel in their old pile o'parts! A standard 415 wheel will not work. Any helpers out there in watchland?
