Very nice. I think Mikey is about to have a certain level of envy when he sees this one.

No kidding. I'll be happy if my Elector looks that good! BUT I was also thinkin'.....there's a nice 335 parts movement.

I can't wait to see yours Mikey! My Elector was overhauled last year and I replaced the mainspring and crystal. I have to say the 335 is one of the easier movements to work on.

That’s a blast from the past. Assuming this is the one I did for you umpteen years ago?
