Subject: Dropped a Gruen "G" onto the tab of your browser

You may notice a familiar looking "G" in your tab heading of firefox and other browsers. I noticed a "404 Not Found" error in the web logs telling me I had no favicon.ico. Well, I fixed that!

The icon came from my 43 Captain dial, I washed though Gimp and colored it green.

Enjoy!

I notice it in my Chrome browser. Not in IE

Is this G vintage enough?

I thought about about putting a Veri-Thin "V" in there. "VG". That would make it vintage.

Quote:"VG".

Still not showing up in IE9. Strange.

IE9 may want more information about the website. Unfortunately my address is not a real website so it might not display it. Check on it when we go live.
